(Ord. 00-2, 7/19/2000, §I)

§10-302. Findings and Purposes.

The Borough Council of Troy Borough, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, find and declare that the maintenance of junkyards and the storage of junk within the Borough represent unique dangers to the health, welfare and safety of the residents of Troy Borough. In particular, the storage of junk and the maintenance of junkyards can and will, if not properly regulated, result in traffic hazards, dangers from fire and explosion, threats to the safety of children and incompetents, provide breeding places for insects and vermin, create substantial risks of pollution of surface and subsurface waters within the Borough, create unique problems for law enforcement and firefighting and require that the Borough engage in additional expense for the supervision and regulation of such places. The Council members further find that the said dangers to the health, safety and welfare of the residents of the Borough require that junkyards be prohibited within the Borough and that such junk as may accumulate within the Borough be removed to a licensed facility for the disposal of the same at regular intervals.
